

PaTTANpod

Inspiring Educational Growth

Join the conversation!

Make PaTTANpod your go-to source for current and relevant information in the field of education.

Now in its 4th season, PaTTANpod is a thought-provoking discussion program that enables educators to access professional development directly from their classroom, office, or home. Prior guests include:

- Julie Esparza Brown, Ed.D.
- Hugh Catts, Ph.D.
- Carole Clancy
- Robbin Coddling, Ph.D.
- Nicole Corbin
- Emily Hanford
- Tyrone Howard, Ph.D.
- Shauna King
- Louisa Moats, Ed.D.
- Paul Riccomini, Ph.D.
- Adam Sáenz Ph.D.
- Lana Edwards Santoro, Ph.D.
- Mark Sundberg, Ph.D., BCBA-D
- Rebecca Treiman, Ph.D.
- Amanda VanDerHeyden, Ph.D.
- Marilyn Zecher
- Educators from local and regional schools

PaTTANpod

Inspiring Educational Growth

PaTTANpod currently offers episodes on a variety of topics, with additional episodes being added regularly. Episodes include:

- Reading Comprehension: Product or Process
- Educational Audiologist as Part of the IEP Team
- Intersection Between Spelling and Reading
- Having Those Tough Conversations: Mediation Process for IEP
- Equity: Taking Action
- Belief-Based vs Evidence-Based Instruction in the Classroom
- Distinguishing Language Acquisition From Learning Disabilities
- Effectively Engaging Families
- Language-Based Disorders
- Maintenance Practice in the Mathematics Classroom
- Multisensory Math Instruction
- What We Say Matters
- Understanding Student Escalations and How to Appropriately Respond

Follow Us:

#PaTTANpod

PaTTANpod is available in the following formats:

Apple Podcast

PaTTANpod is a project of the Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network (PaTTAN), which is dedicated to delivering best practice models to practitioners in the field of education.

PaTTAN
Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network

www.pattan.net