To whom it may concern,

HumanWare USA Inc is the manufacturer of the BrailleNote Touch+, Brailiant Braille displays, Prodigy Desktop video magnifier, the Prodigy Connect 12, the Reveal 16 and Reveal 16i, and the Exploré handheld electronic magnifiers. HumanWare has acquired Enabling Technologies and we have added the Romeo 60, Juliet 120, and the Phoenix embossers to our product line. HumanWare USA is also the exclusive North American distributor of Index embossers, the Mountbatten product line and the PIAF, (Pictures In A Flash).

Vis-Ability Inc, our new distributor, is the sole source provider of the above equipment in and to the State of Pennsylvania.

Service or modification of HumanWare's product hardware must be done by an authorized HumanWare Service Technician.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely

Francine Callaghan

Flag Status: Flagged

Good afternoon. This email is being sent BCC to all US HumanWare dealers.
The HumanWare price list has been updated, and our January 2023 version is attached.

Before I get to the changes to the price list, thank you to those attended the POA presentation earlier this afternoon.

Changes to the price list:

- Connect 12 v2.1
 - o Refer to page 2 for details.
 - Connect 12 v2.1 MSRP is $3,595. Add the SL10 or SL25 distance camera and prices are $3,795 and $3,895, respectively. [REDACTED]
 - The upgrade price for the tablet only is $1,195, good through June 30, 2023. [REDACTED]
 - Join us in notifying your customers about the limited time offer to upgrade their v2.0 tablets.
- Stream 3.0
 - o Refer to page 10 of the price list to find details for the new Victor Reader Stream.
 - o We have tiered pricing for this model with [REDACTED]

If you have any questions about the price list, please contact your regional manager or inside sales representative at HumanWare.

Thanks,
David
